"Okaw" is the Indian name of the Kaskaskia river in Illinois, which runs through or near the village of Shelbyville -hence the name given to the paper you refer to.

Swindling .- Isaac J. Wood was yesterday arrested on several different charges of obtaining goods by false pretences to a very large amount from several of our heaviest mercanale houses. We understand that a large sum of money was taken from him yesterday by Police Justice Parker, including ten bank notes of $1,000 each. The aggregate of claims against him is considerably over $50,000 Henry E. Willard, formerly a Manager of the National Theatre, is also arrested as an accomplice. A further examination in the case will take place to-day.

LATEST FROM TEXAS .- By the Kingston, 48 hours from Galveston, we have the latest Houston papers. The war schooner San Bernard arrived at Galveston on Sunday night, with Judge Webb on board, and brings the intelligence that Mexico refused to receive or treat with him as an agent to procure the acknowledgement of the independence of Texas.

The Santa Fe expedition started on the 15th ult. It coneisted of 308 men. The Civilian says the march is not on a direct line, but comprises a campaign against the Indians the course being first to the head waters of the Brazos, and thence across to the head waters of the Trinity, for the purse of scouring the country about and between these points. There are eighteen men along who have traveled fro ad San Saba fort to Santa Fe, and they all concur in making he distance about four hundred miles. Andrew Jackson Davis shot himself accidentally and died estantly at Austin on the 12th inst. while endeavoring to plain some military managuve to a portion of the members the Santa Fe expedition, to which he was attached.

The Houstonian states that the canal around the raft is the Scandaloupe river below Victoria has been completed. Scambouts can now go to Victoria. [N. O. Bee, July 4.

CAPTURED SLAVERS .- The bark Harvest, which arrived at Fairhaven on Sunday last, reports that eleven slavers have recently been captured by H. B. M. cruisers, and carried ato St. Helena, from July 1st, 1840, to April 3d, 1841. By hese captures, fourteen hundred and seventy-six human beings were rescued from hopeless slavery, and will be re-sored to their country and liberty, while their inhuman stealers will meet the punishment due to piracy, according to the laws of Great Britain.

IT "H," cannot understand our allusion to the Bible in answering his cavils in our last. We thought it plain enough. The Bible speaks continually of crimes and wickedness, but not in such a monner as to tempt to their commission. Does 'H.' understand us now? 'H.' does not profess to know what other penny papers may dw. This is an evasion. We said that no paper—penny or six-penny—could live which did not give the events of the day—crimes among them. Nor ought it. If our monitor's philosophy be sound, every criminal Judge must become a debased scoundrel; but is such the fact!

If The infamous manager of The Sun, who ran away from Spring field, Mass, and from Saugerties, N. Y., amidst the general execuation of the people he had outraged by his iniquities and defrauded by his es, dures to insinuate in his last that the letter from Buffale pubished by us, stating that Flour had gone up to $5.50 there, was fabricated in this office! That letter was written in Buffalo by an old and espectable citizen of that place, who has nothing whatever to do with Flour, and who, although a Loco-Foco, is a man of strict integrity. His name is at the service of any gentleman who chooses to ask for it; and any one will be satisfied by writing him that we publish devery word of it which was not private exactly as it reached us. Of course, every intelligent man understands that a great change took elace in the aspect of the Wheat Crop, owing to genial rains, about the time our correspondent's letter was written.

COURT OF SESSIONS .- July 13 .- Before Judges Lynch and Noah.

James Mullen was tried for an assault and battery on Thomas Brady of 481 Cherry st. on the 19th April last. Complainant deposed that prisoner and another man were lighting at the foot of Oliver st.—that he ran into the crowd to see what was going on, when Mullen stabbed him with some sharp instrument—inflicting a daugerous wound on his left ear, that confined him a long time in the hospital, and cost him $120 to get cured. After complainant was stabbed and saw the blood, he attacked and threw Mullen and gave him several blows.

Other witnesses corroborated the statements of Brady as to Other witnesses corroborated the statements of Brady as to his being stabled by Mullen, and the beating Mullen received by Brady and others afterwards. It was proved that he was subsequently knocked down, kicked and so much injured that he had to be conveyed home on a cart. The jury found the accused not suite.

he had to be conveyed home on a cart. The jury found the accused not guilty.

John O'Brien was tried for grand larceny, stealing a $100 bill and three balances for weighing gold, worth $12, from Messrs.

F.J. & Sylvester J. Sylvester & Jarvis Morrison, brokers, of 130 Broadway, on the 14th June last Prisoner was a porter in the office of the complainants, and after the loss of the money officer Relyea went with prisoner to prisoner's house, and on searching it found the stolen balances, which he said were given him by a person from England, and on searching his person, $97 in money was found, which he said was the result of his earnings. When taken to the store of Sylvesters, the balances were claimed by them as theirs that had been stolen, and he confessed to having stolen the $100 bill and gottes it changed, expressing great sorrow for having done so. He proved an excellent previous character.

The jury found prisoner guilty, and recommended him to mercy. The Court sentenced him to the State Prison for two years.

Forfeitures—James Fraser, William S. Pearsall and Catharine Baily alias O'Brien, indicted for keeping disorderly houses in Water st. in the 4th Ward, severally failing to appear and HEADACHE—CERTAIN CURE FOR SICK HEADACHE which has been used in families, every member of which has had sick headache from infancy, as a constitutional family complaint, and has cured effectually, in every instance yet knows, amounting to many hundreds. It is not unpleasant to the taste, and does not prevent the daily avocations of one using it; it must be persevered in, and the cure is gradual, but certain and permanent. Instances are certainly multiplying where this distressing complaint is completely relieved and cured, although of years' standing, by the use of Doctor Spohn's celebrated remedy. One decided preference is its pleasantness, having none of the nauseating effect of common drugs.

It is so perfectly satisfactory that the proprieter has given direction for his agents to refund the price to any one who is not pleased with, and even cured by it. He hopes also that this may secure its great benefits to the distressed sufferers who are laboring under Headache. Sold only at 7t Maiden Lane, New-Tork.

CASTLE POINT AND THE ELVSIAN

FIELDS.—The delightful Pleasure Grounds at Hobokez have been put in complete order, and, having been much improved, are now open to visiters. The cool and shady walks, wisding for a long distance on the banks of the majestic Hudson, offer a pleasant and refreshing retreat from the hot and dusty pavements of the city.

The heights of Castle Point (which are still open to the public) command an extensive and beautiful prospect, embracing at a glance the noble hay dotted with islands, and enlivened with vossels gliding in every direction on its bosonn; the city, with its numerous spires, and the distant hum of its busy finhabitants; while the river, whitened with sails, is lost in the distance beyond the towering palisades, presenting altogether a scene lovely beyond description, and of its kind unequaled.

TO PUBLIC SPEAKERS!

TO Messrs, J. PEASE & SON—Dear Sirs: Your valuable preparation of Horehound deserves a few remarks from my own exporience. Being in the labit of addressing frequent large meetings, I found my health and strength decaying, my spirits sinking, my lungs railing, and my voice faltering fast. In fact, I had lost all hopes, and was every hour fearful of burring a blood vessel, when the account of your Horehound Candy, and the cures it had effected, reached me. I believe I took but one package, when every unfavorable symptom disappeared, and my general health evidently improved. I now feel regenerated so completely that I am freely empowered to speak bette than I did three years agu. J. WELCer, 144 Gold st.
